

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments . . . . .	17
Introduction . . . . .	19
1 JUSTICE . . . . .	25
Justice is possible only when everyone has a realistic     opportunity to meet their basic human needs.
2 FAMILY . . . . .	43
Healthy families, regardless of poverty, cultivate dignity     and become the foundation of society.
3 COMMUNITY . . . . .	59
People in the developing world wholly embrace, participate in,     and are enriched by community.
4 GRATITUDE . . . . .	71
True gratitude results in generosity.
5 PERSISTENCE . . . . .	85
Hardship creates persistence in a way that luxury does not.
6 SELF-RELIANCE . . . . .	97
The working poor long to break free from the chains of     poverty and become fully self-reliant.
7 FAITH . . . . .	107
When there are no safety nets, faith takes on new meaning.
8 INNOCENCE . . . . .	121
Childhood is a luxury we must fight to protect.
9 INGENUITY . . . . .	133
The poorest entrepreneurs redefine creativity and innovation.
10 AWARENESS . . . . .	145
Thanks to technology, the whole world is watching.
11 FINAL LESSONS . . . . .	161
God loves the poor, and so should we.
Epilogue . . . . .	171